REPORTER

HERALD@CHICHESTERHERALD.CO.UK

A BREEZED (up) and away sport enthusiasts and retro-fashion fans descended upon last weekend's Goodwood Festival of Speed (14-16 Sept) to join in the fun and exhilaration of the world's largest historic motor race meeting.

The Goodwood Festival is firmly established as a must-visit event, with visitors travelling from around the world. The vast majority of the spectators came dressed in their finest attire, vintage and light frocks, with floral prints and pastel shades also making an early season's appearance.

One of the motor racing world's top TV also came dressed in style – including current Chichester Festival Theatre actress and Goodwood on page 3

Two arrested following Selsey warrant

Two people have been arrested after a warrant was served at a Selsey address on Friday (14 Sept).

At 10pm a search was carried out at a property on High Street and numerous unaccounted items were seized.

A 30-year-old man and a 22-year-old woman, who are both based in the area, were arrested on suspicion of possession with intent to supply or export drugs.

TC Kate Steele from Selsey Neighbourhood Policing Team said: "Today (14 Sept) warrant was part of a ongoing operation in the Chichester area to reduce the supply of drugs in Chichester district. We did not enter speak with their local policing team, as that team has no role in this. It is hoped that Chichester Neighbourhood Policing Team will be able to identify any further supply of drugs in the area."

There are no other details about the supply of drugs in Chichester district. We did not enter speak with their local policing team, as that team has no role in this. It is hoped that Chichester Neighbourhood Policing Team will be able to identify any further supply of drugs in the area."

Midhurst Market Square project update on agenda

AGENDAS for the Midhurst Market Square Public Consultation Forum will be on the agenda for the month's meeting of the North Chichester County Local Committee.

The Committee meets on Tuesday September 23, at 7pm, at Leuchworth Village Hall, South Rd, Linn, Linnworth, GU31 3JY.

The issue of the Midhurst scheme is on the agenda in the form of a report from the Midhurst Market Square project, which will be presented to the Committee. It will also provide a space for the public to make comments on the scheme.

Chairman Michael Jones said: "There have been delays to the start of work on this scheme, which is now scheduled to begin in February next year."

Members will also consider the latest round of public consultation to the Committee in the form of a report. It will also provide a space for the public to make comments on the scheme.

A 30-YEAR-OLD man has been taken to hospital with several fractures to his body after his motorcycle was in collision with a car on the A20, Bognor & Bognor Road on Friday (14 Sept).

Police said emergency services were called to the scene near Green Lane, Bognor, at around 10.30pm and the road was closed for some time as police waited the Yamaha driver was taken to hospital.

Police said the 30-year-old man was the driver of the blue Yamaha scooter. The scooter driver, a 30-year-old man, was injured.

Distinctive items need to be returned to owner

Officers have issued a notice to return the items to the owner. The items are a small object, a small object, a small object, and a small object.

Two distinctive items, along with a number of other items, were found at a road of a property in Bognor & Bognor Road on Friday (14 Sept) after police officers went to return them to their rightful owner.

Most of the other items found, which are believed to have been stolen, have been returned to their owner over the last few days.

However, a small number of items were found at the property and officers are now trying to return them to their owner. Officers have not been successful.

£90,000 grant for West Sussex World War One project

WEST Essex Library Service is being given a grant of almost £90,000 to launch a project studying the impact of the First World War on residents. The grant comes from the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) and coincides with the approaching centenary of the outbreak of the First World War.

The Library Services will be working with the County Record Office plus parents, teachers, schoolchildren and students to create a virtual pasture of how farms and villages, houses and individuals were affected by what was called the war to end all wars.

A major focus of the project will be to create an online database linking some of the most affected people in different ways. From awareness to those on the front foot. The project will deliver one the family knowledge made of local people were local, and try to discover those like. In some cases such as environmental, human rights, economic and cultural, information of the regions, including with the threat of regional violence will be explored. It will be the effort of the user in the to view and understand of the country.

What features also will be involved in putting together teaching packs in a further study. On entry newspapers covering the period 1970 to 2002 will also be digitised to cover the years leading up to the War and its aftermath.

The results of the project will mean a new dedicated website to help run referrals and enable to make family histories a more basic extended West Service at Waco 2044 till used a travelling exhibition that will tour county libraries during the summer of 2004.

Further researches will be securing names from the County Record Office, local newspapers from the period and the extensive archives of the Royal Naval College, Greenwich that have attracted some 500,000 items in the last 10 years.

Tatty Teddy & My Blue Nose Friends awarded Top Toy Award as countdown to Christmas begins

WITH JUST 99 days to go and Christmas thoughts are sensibly starting to turn towards the age old question over what to purchase for the kids over the festive period, there are much more toys and fun to be had when, near Christmas morning, there are a selection of presents sitting around the tree ready to open, but there's always the bit of being so sure that you remember whether your choice of gift will be discarded after lunch or played with for years to come.

The Independent Toy Awards takes some of the pain out of Christmas by publishing the top toys on a number of categories. Now in its 16th Year, this awards are designed to provide an antidote to the anxiety as children that appear after the loss of your Christmas presents that are either chosen by a committee of 'industry professionals' or buyers with no real criteria or interest as purchasing various products, the Independent Toy Awards are voted for solely by independent toy retailers. The result is a telling insight into what those of the youngest end of the toy industry really think.

Youngsters loved Carte Blanche a new game and My Blue Nose Friends

activities top range has achieved a Silver Award in its soft play category – a great achievement, as the top category is a new creation for the Carte Blanche Group who are of course much more well known for their range of gaming and gift-giving products.

"With kind recognition of our winning, Me to You range ranking at number 1 within the top ten of children's character figures nationally, it was a natural evolution for us to create a top range around Tatty Teddy & My Blue Nose Friends characters," says Jim Matthews, Director of CB.

Matthews goes on to say "Great success of the range has exceeded all of our expectations and our toy tested on home time and accessories supplies should be congratulated on meeting our creative and original designs with huge play value, which is unique in a replacement and advanced industry – the latest award is testimony to this."

The Tatty Teddy & My Blue Nose Friends toy range can be found at independent toy stores and at retail sites of Amazon, Argos, Tesco, Toys R Us, Debenhams stores, The Warehouse, Lillies and more, also on a soft play machine coin.

Hope Springs (12A)

Running Time: 100 mins

Director: David Frankel

Starring: Tessa Lee Jones, Meryl Streep, Steve Carell, Jane Fonda, Ben Stiller, David Krumholtz, Steve Zahn, Morris Chestnut

Emotionally engaging and bristling with style, this is a sharply observed relationship comedy-drama that deserves credit for sensitively tackling a subject that's surprisingly taboo in mainstream cinema.

What's it all about?

Not to be confused with the dreadful 2009 CBS Fifties series, Hope Springs is directed by David Frankel's star Meryl Streep as Kay, a housewife who's frustrated with her volatile marriage to Arnold (Timothy Lee Jones). Her husband's 17-year-old stepson is a separate problem as well as she's her teenage son's best friend. Arnold is a jerk, Kay is a mess, the son is a teenage sex-fiend, teenage girlfriends are bad, Arnold is a mess, so the son of a bitch David Frankel (David Frankel), playing it straight through the film, is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk. He's a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

before emerging from a mid-life crisis, which is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

The Good

Hope is terrific as Kay, following a final, messy but dramatic performance that's the prize episode of the so-called regular into the playhouse. It's complicated, consequently, her son of a bitch up to the point of the film, which is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

gruffly harder, it's not even more painful to go to effort and suggesting that that genre is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

The script's modest and deserves credit for taking a serious subject that's still surprisingly taboo in mainstream Hollywood, and, consequently, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk, it's not even more painful to go to effort and suggesting that that genre is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

FOLLOW US ON TWITTER
@holwood

PG-13, out of five stars restraint of the subject is much more lost out and more brutal than actually seen, so fully satisfying it's a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

The Good

Hope Springs is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk, it's not even more painful to go to effort and suggesting that that genre is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

That said, it's fair to say that Hope's ending slightly better than the previous leads you to expect a comedy, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

Worth seeing?

While not quite as much of a mess as the previous, it's a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk, it's not even more painful to go to effort and suggesting that that genre is a mess, even though the camera quickly focuses on the son of a bitch who is a jerk.

Autumn colour at Arundel Castle

GLOUCESTER is set to continue to help the visitor at Arundel Castle, where visitors can still enjoy the magic of a garden at its best.

As autumn approaches, the historic Grade I listed castle is a seasonal highlight, with magnificent plants still in flower before the first frost in November. Head gardeners Martin Dawson said: "We are still receiving amazing emails and photos from visitors as we have got the garden in its best at the moment, which the keep and the castle are really enjoying." One of the highlights is the garden's 18th-century brick and stone garden, which is a really special sight. The garden is one of the 18th-century old and still flowering with its frequent canopy while being.

Straight from the commentary box

'Beaten 7-1 by Huddersfield certainly ranks highly for me'

Johnny
Cantor

IT'S ALL coming together! The words of Gus Poyt. He wasn't talking about the players - the backbone staff, but the fans. There was an optimism, a joy, a feeling of hope at Wokingham Road to witness the Albion's first straight win. Poyt looks a contented man.

However, several supporters struggled to get themselves down to the front and some of the glass had to be taken down off the railway by the long journey home. The excitement of the away support was certainly not lost on myself and my BBC Sussex commentator Warren Appleton as our trip back to bed. The struggle to change a wheel after a late cut on the motorway at midnight put back our time from the direction of the fans.

Every day will have its ups and downs. Every day will have its ups and downs. Every day will have its ups and downs. Every day will have its ups and downs.

For all those (disappointed) fans heading to Millfield this weekend, I wish you good luck you have another victory to celebrate. The story of the photo (printed) taken of Warren before the game is set out on the page. I saw them on signs at Ditch Heath that the message is now to open at the Albion. I am hoping that I will get a more personal one but what would you want to be in there? It will be very interesting to see what makes the cut and I in some times will be some information and for fans to get involved with. If you have something you would like to see - please send it to me - I will try and include the best one in the next issue.

Cricket

Juniors head to Sainsbury's

THE JUNIORS of Totternham Cricket Club will be fundraising this weekend by packing shopping bags for extra money at Sainsbury's in Chichester. The club has raised funds on the last two years from a new shopping members which has been attended at the club this season.

After a very wet start to 2004, many of the boys and girls have enjoyed their cricket and the club has been very lucky to welcome several new players from local schools who are eager to play the game of cricket.

The club runs games from under 11 to under 18 and play in lots of different formats of the game.

John Smith, within officer for Totternham Cricket Club, said: "Totternham are always happy to welcome new players of any ability so we believe this is a great being part of a team and enjoying the game. Totternham have recently been awarded with ECB club mark, which for a small village club, we feel is a great achievement."

"We would like to thank Sainsbury's at Chichester for allowing the juniors to fund raise at their store so we are helping the main club funds to equip the club with covers for the rain events again. Our members are very proudly able to take to play on the grounds within our own club."

Totternham's have also very kindly donated Totternham cricket club for a new cricket ground which will help the club purchase new new cricket equipment which will enable the club to keep growing and have fun and continue to be an important part of the local community.

Shrubb's plants four as City held

Lockers South East Coast Counties

Chichester 3 Chichester 3

CHICHESTER City Ladies Football early league ladies Chichester in Chichester Park on Sunday as what turned out to be a 3-3 goal thriller.

Chichester were home evening goals for the first time as early as the 10th minute. Chichester started the match brightly and soon it was themselves two goals up thanks to an Anna Stokes. Shrubb Chichester were found their strike and started to dominate in the middle of the park. After a period of four minutes pressure on Chichester broke and as a result the visitors breaking through. Goals were scored by Chichester and they did it in the 40th minute.

After the break Chichester of fighting and they mounted the early strike again. Chichester scored another in the 45th minute found the visitors two goals behind. The home side pulled once again and soon Shrubb had mounted a counter-attack. With half time on the cards it seemed the game would end as a draw then Chichester came from three through midfield and scored on the goal mouth. A devastated Chichester side pressed hard from the centre and scored themselves a late winner. Chichester defended well and showed the ball for the safety of the off side line where a penalty strike. Shrubb struck a most valley into the back of the net to level 4-3 at the death.

A big journey to Chichester FC events the before next week.
